Booth Scholarship

Eligibility- Be enrolled as a full-time student in good academic standing; must have completed your freshman year in college; maintain a 3.25 minimum cumulative GPA; must have a declared major within the following departments: Mathematics and Statistics, Chemistry, Biological Sciences, Earth Sciences, Physics and Astronomy and Computer Sciences (Students who have declared their major in Pre-Medical Sciences are ineligible to apply); must be a resident of a county within the University’s designated service region; demonstrate exemplary scholastic ability, particularly in the areas of math or science; possess a strong work ethic; and demonstrate financial need via FAFSA; must have the intent of pursuing a graduate degree in their field of study.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- Completion of at least 24 credit hours per academic year; completion of an application and statement of intent each award period; continued major in math or science field listed above; agreement to meet with Donors at least once a year for mentoring; and interview with the scholarship committee.

To Apply- To be considered for the Booth Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application form which can be found on the web at: http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/booth.

Application Deadline- March 1

Meredith J. Cox Scholarship

Eligibility-For an EKU student majoring in the premedical field as evidence by the degree program; a sophomore or junior standing; and a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA. Extra-curricular activities and demonstrated need via FAFSA will also be considered.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- Not renewable.

To Apply- To be considered for the Meredith J. Cox Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application which can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/cox.

Application Deadline- March 1

The Clarence H. Gifford Scholarship in Sciences

Eligibility- For a full-time undergraduate EKU sophomore majoring in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, or Physics; must be a resident of Kentucky and a graduate of a high school in Kentucky; must have completed one science course during freshmen year; and demonstrate need via FAFSA.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- May be renewed.

To Apply- To be considered for the Gifford Scholarship, students should submit one letter of recommendation; a two page letter of consideration describing your interest and plan to use science education within your career; and scholarship application form which can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/gifford.

Application Deadline- March 1

John McMillan Long Endowed Scholarship

Eligibility- Be enrolled as a full-time student; must have a declared major within the following areas: Art, Music, Theatre, English, Foreign Languages, History, Art History, Music History, Communication Studies, Philosophy, or Religion; maintain a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA; and demonstrate need via FAFSA.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- May be renewed.

To Apply- To be considered for the John McMillan Long Endowed Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application form through the EKU Scholarships Office which can be found on the web at: http://scholarships.eku.edu/foundation.

Application Deadline- April 1

The Laura D. Kennamer Scholarship in the Social and Behavioral Sciences

Kennamer Campus Scholarship

Eligibility- For an EKU student majoring in Anthropology, Economics, Geography, Government, History, Psychology, Social Work or Sociology; maintain a 3.25 minimum cumulative GPA; have 36-90 semester credit hours complete.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- May be renewed but applicants must reapply each year. If selected, the student will be required to participate in the College of Arts & Sciences scholar recognition activities. Students receiving financial aid are encouraged strongly to consult with the Financial Aid office as Kennamer awards may reallocate the student’s financial aid award.

To Apply- To be considered for the Kennamer Campus Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application; letter of nomination by faculty member of the department; two page letter of recommendation explaining academic accomplishments and how that will impact your learning objectives; letter of recommendation by department chair of your major; and a copy of your official academic transcript. Application and budget sheet can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/kennamer.

Application Deadline- March 1

Kennamer Study Abroad Scholarship

Eligibility- For an EKU student majoring in Anthropology, Economics, Geography, Government, History, Psychology, Social Work or Sociology; maintain a 3.25 minimum cumulative GPA; have 36-90 semester credit hours complete; and the study abroad experience the student proposes must grant at least three semester hours of credit from an EKU-affiliated Study Abroad program that applies toward an EKU degree.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- The Study Abroad award is a one-time award that is not renewable. Kennamer Campus Scholars are eligible to apply. If selected, the student will be required to participate in the College of Arts & Sciences scholar recognition activities. Students receiving financial aid are encouraged strongly to consult with the Financial Aid office as Kennamer awards may reallocate the student’s financial aid award.

To Apply- To be considered for the Kennamer Study Abroad Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application; letter of nomination by faculty member of the department; two page letter of recommendation explaining academic accomplishments and how that will impact your learning objectives; letter of recommendation by department chair of your major; a copy of your official academic transcript; a budget for the proposed study abroad program. Application and budget sheet can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/kennamer.

Application Deadline- November 1

Layne-Wood Endowed Scholarship

Eligibility- Applicants must be a degree seeking full-time student enrolled in the College of Arts & Sciences; must be in good academic standing and a Kentucky resident and must maintain a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA (college or high school).

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- Students must re-apply each year.

To Apply- To be considered for the Layne-Wood Endowed Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application which can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships/laynewood.

Application Deadline- March 1

Marathon Scholarship

Eligibility- For an EKU student majoring in Geology; eligible to work full time in the US upon graduation; work authorization for an internship in the US prior to graduation; and a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA. Demonstrated need via FAFSA may also be considered.

Benefit- Annual scholarship based on available funds.

Conditions- May be renewable.

To Apply- To be considered for the Marathon Scholarship, students should submit a scholarship application which can be found on the web at http://cas.eku.edu/college-scholarships#marathon.

Application Deadline- March 1